Celebrating
45 years of teaching experience and expertise!

Robert Chambers was the first hairdresser to open a hairdressing school and the first hairdresser to be inaugurated into the Irish Hairdressing Hall of Fame. He began his hairdressing career in 1965, training in the famous 'Witches Hut' and with Vidal Sassoon in London.

The Robert Chambers Hairdressing Academy is the first established and longest running hairdressing school in Ireland.

Our aim is to educate, stimulate and motivate our students by improving technique, precision and technical discipline along with nurturing creativity and passion. We want our students to learn the correct way to cut, colour and style hair, to build confidence and have a solid understanding of modern hairdressing.

Our Educators are full time teachers with years of experience and expertise in hairdressing. We understand that everyone has very specific needs in relation to training. We will sit down with you and discuss your requirements.
